The exceptional Italian-style rifle with extraordinary engraving and a handguard with metal inserts!

Le revenant, an exceptional Guérini hunting rifle entirely hand-finished. Its particularly elegant line is supported by metal inserts placed in the wood of the handguard and in continuity with the rocker.

- Manual engraving with floral motifs with gilding.
- Metal surfaces with Invisalloy coating for better protection.
- Proven steel ball guns for hunting in wetlands.
- Delicately veined walnut stock.
- Comfortable and elegant round rocker.
- Pistol grip and finely squared front.
- Very nice wooden butt plate.

The peculiarity of this rifle lies in the metal inserts which make the continuity of the lever and is perfectly integrated in the forearm.
